Application guidelines:
10 litres: 1 % applied solution = 100 ml disinfection agent + 9.9 litres of water

Prepare the water. Add the appropriate amount of the disinfection agent concentrate and stir briefly. The solution is ready to apply immediately. According to the RKI’s recommendation, disinfection agent solutions should be changed each working day. The solution should be stored in clean and covered containers (instrument baths or storage caps).